

Captivities: Experiences and Institutions of Slavery in the Early Modern Mediterranean

BOLOGNA, 18-19 MAY 2023

ORGANISERS: A. MAROTTA, G. PATISSO, V. LAVENIA

Thursday, May 18

14:30 Greetings

14:40 Manumission and the Afterlife of Slavery

Turkana Allahverdiyeva (University of Bonn)

Kefâret and afterlife investment: Hasbeten Lillâh slave manumission in the early modern Crimean Khanate

Beatrice Schivo (University of Cagliari)

Slavery, freedom, and trade between Cagliari and North Africa in the early 17th c.: The story of Sallem Desfachs

Respondent: Serena Di Nepi (Sapienza University of Rome)

15:50 The Northern Invasion

Jihene Boughamoura (University of Sousse)

Scandinavian captives in North Africa

Massimo Bomboni (University of Turin)

Northern experiences of Mediterranean slavery in the Tuscan sources

Respondent: Luca Lo Basso (University of Genoa)

17:00 Break

17:20 Identities in the Western Mediterranean

Erika Rincones Minda (EUI, Fiesole)

"Separate to keep them safe": Religion and slavery at birth in 17th century Malaga

Teresa Dominguez (University of Valencia)

Microsocieties with slaves: The galleys of Spain and Mediterranean slavery in the late 16th century

Achille Marotta (University of Bologna)

Enslaved street vendors in the Republic of Genoa: Enclosure, resistance, and Mediterranean custom

Respondent: Daniel Hershenzon (University of Connecticut)

Friday, May 19

09:00 States of Enslavement

Halit Serkan Simen (EUI, Fiesole)

Servants of the supreme state: Depictions of political slavery in Ottoman documents

Benedetta Chizzolini (LMU, Munich)

"Poco importando che ivi si dica schiavo o forzato": On the status of convict and slave on Italian galleys

Respondent: Justine Walden (University of Wisconsin, Madison)

10:10 Ransom Economies

Nida Nebahat Nalçacı (Bilkent University)

The transformation of the early modern ransom economy in the Mediterranean after the War of Cyprus

Serena Anzovino (University of Pisa)

The ransom of captives in 17th c. Livornese notary acts: Intermediaries, money lenders, and legal precautions

Respondent: M'hamed Oualdi (Sciences Po, Paris)

11:20 Break

11:40 Markets in the Eastern Mediterranean

Bahar Bayraktaroglu (University of Bonn)

Contextualizing the actions of slave dealers in eighteenth century Ottoman Istanbul

Giuseppe Alberto Patisso (University of Bologna)

Adriatic Chains: A seventeenth and eighteenth century slave trade

Respondent: Giancarlo Casale (EUI, Fiesole)

12:50 Conclusions